KIM WILSON

PRESIDENT

Kim is an Operations Business Analyst with Oracle. She is a member of the Communications Global Business Unit and works closely with the executive committee to develop and implement policies, maintain efficient operations, and monitor the financial performance of the unit. She currently lives in Little Elm with her daughter Kayla (16) and son Joseph (20). In her spare time, she is completing a PhD in Business Administration.

Mmmmm Mmmmm Gooood...

Susan Adams brought some sopapilla cheesecake to the August Meeting. In case you missed this heavenly dessert here is the recipe. If you want to show off your culinary skills and bring to a meeting we'd love to try it!

SOPAPILLA CHEESECAKE

INGREDIENTS:

2 rolls of regular crescent rolls (Phillybury in refrigerated section)
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 tsp. cinnamon
1 tsp. vanilla
2- 8 oz packages of regular Philadelphia cream cheese.

DIRECTIONS:

Use a 9x13 pan, and put one layer of the crescent rolls down on the bottom. Stretch it out a little to make it fit the bottom of the pan. Pinch the perforations together so it is all connected. Soften the cream cheese in the microwave (about 1 minute). Mix the two packages of cream cheese, 1 cup sugar, 1 tsp vanilla together in a large bowl until well blended. Spread mixture over first layer of crescent rolls. Put other crescent roll layer over top of mixture and pinch perforations together so it's connected. Combine the remaining 1/2 cup sugar and 1 tsp of cinnamon in a small bowl and sprinkle evenly over top. Melt 1 stick butter or margarine in microwave and pour evenly over top of cheesecake. Bake for 30 minutes at 350 degrees. Wait to cut until cooled down. Good cold or warm.
